Date: MAY 22 2012 Office: VERMONT SERVICE CENTER FILE:

IN RE: Petitioner:

PETITION: Petition for U Nonimmigrant Classification as a Victim of a Qualifying Crime Pursuant to Section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 101(a)(15)(U)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen with the field office or service center that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630, or a request for a fee waiver. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (“the director”), denied the nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed. The petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“the Act”), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The director denied the petition on September 8, 2011 because the petitioner failed to establish that he was the victim of substantial physical or mental abuse as a result of a qualifying criminal activity. The director determined that the petitioner did not meet any of the statutory eligibility criteria for U classification at section 101(a)(15)(U)(i)(I) – (IV) of the Act.

On appeal, counsel for the petitioner submitted a Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B), indicating that a brief or other evidence would be submitted within 30 days, or by November 28, 2011. To date, over five months later, the AAO has received no further brief or evidence from the petitioner.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

On the Form I-290B counsel asserts that the petitioner was the victim of qualifying crimes or crimes similar to perjury and extortion and that the nature of the psychological and mental abuse is clear in this case. Counsel notes that a brief will be submitted explaining in more detail the reasons for the appeal. Counsel, however, fails to identify any specific erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director’s decision and the AAO has received no further evidence or brief in support of the appeal. Accordingly, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition remains denied.
