DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (the director), denied the U nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed and the petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks nonimmigrant classification under section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U), as an alien victim of certain qualifying criminal activity.

The director denied the petition, concluding that the petitioner had not established that he was the victim of qualifying criminal activity and, therefore, had not satisfied the eligibility criteria at section 101(a)(15)(U)(i) of the Act.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to specifically identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Here, in Part 3 of the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, counsel for the petitioner states only that the director erred in her interpretation of section 101(a)(15)(U) of the Act, but does not identify any factual or legal error in the director's determination. The petitioner checked box B on part 2 of the Form I-290B, which states that a "brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted to the AAO within 30 days." However, to date, six months later, the AAO has received nothing further from the applicant in support of his appeal.

The petitioner here has failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision. The AAO, therefore, will summarily dismiss the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. The petition remains denied.
