DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition and dismissed a subsequent motion to reopen and/or reconsider. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is engaged in software development and consulting and seeks to employ the beneficiary as a programmer analyst. The petitioner, therefore, endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition on June 8, 2010, finding that the petitioner failed to: (1) submit an itinerary for all work locations of the beneficiary; (2) submit a valid Labor Condition Application (LCA) for all work locations of the beneficiary; and (3) establish that the proposed position qualifies for classification as a specialty occupation. A subsequently-filed motion to reopen and reconsider filed by the petitioner was dismissed on August 3, 2010.

On September 3, 2010, counsel for the petitioner submitted a timely Form I-290B and indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. As of this date, however, the AAO has not received any additional evidence into the record. Therefore, the record is considered complete as currently constituted.

The director provided a detailed analysis and specifically cited the deficiencies in the evidence in the course of the decision. Counsel's statement on Form I-290B, which simply states that "[t]he brief in support will be filed within 30 days," does not specifically identify any errors on the part of the director and is therefore insufficient to overcome the conclusions the director reached based on the evidence submitted by the petitioner.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v). Counsel fails to specify how the director made any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in denying the petition. As neither the petitioner nor counsel presents additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The burden of proof in this proceeding rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
