DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the service center director and the matter is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as the matter is now moot.

In the Petition for Nonimmigrant Worker (Form I-129), the petitioner describes itself as an enterprise engaged in recruitment and placement and states that it seeks to employ the beneficiary as a physical therapist. The petitioner, therefore, endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

The director denied the petition, finding that the petitioner failed to establish that the beneficiary possesses the appropriate license to be immediately eligible to engage in the proposed position or that the beneficiary is exempt from the requirement. On appeal, counsel asserts that the director's basis for denial was erroneous and contends that the petitioner satisfied all evidentiary requirements.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services records indicate that this beneficiary is also the beneficiary of an approved immigrant petition and has been granted permanent residence. While the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a permanent resident and the issue in this proceeding is moot. Therefore, this appeal is dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot.
