Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). In accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i), an application received in a U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) office shall be stamped to show the time and date of actual receipt, if it is properly signed, executed, and accompanied by the correct fee. For calculating the date of filing, the appeal shall be regarded as properly filed on the date that it is so stamped by the service center or district office.

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on July 20, 2010. On August 19, 2010, the petitioner filed an appeal of that decision; however, the director rejected the appeal because the petitioner failed to sign the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion. The petitioner resubmitted the appeal properly signed on October 22, 2010, or 94 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1) states that an appeal which is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

An untimely filed appeal must meet specific requirements to be treated as a motion. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) requires that a motion to reopen state the new facts to be provided in the reopened proceeding, supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Furthermore, 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3) requires that a motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or USCIS policy.

The director denied the petition determining that the petitioner had not submitted a completed Form G-325A, Biographic Information, for the beneficiary, and that the petitioner had not established that he and the beneficiary personally met within the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the petition or that he qualified for a waiver of that requirement. On appeal, the petitioner submits additional evidence but he still does not submit a completed Form G-325A, Biographic Information, for the beneficiary, and he does not submit sufficient evidence to show that he and the beneficiary personally met within the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the petition or that he qualified for a waiver of that requirement. It is noted that the petitioner's claim on the petition to have met the beneficiary in Nigeria in January 2008, is not corroborated by copies of his passport pages containing the corresponding entry and exit stamps. Upon review, the petitioner has not established that his late appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or reconsider. As the petitioner has not established that the director's decision was based upon an incorrect application of law or policy, and has failed to submit any evidence to overcome the director's ground for denial, the petitioner's untimely filed appeal does not meet the requirements for a motion to reopen or reconsider and must be rejected.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
