DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as the matter is now moot.

The petitioner, a Florida corporation, states that it sells electrical equipment and supplies. It seeks to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant intracompany transferee pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(L) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(L), so that he may serve in the position of general manager. The beneficiary was initially granted one year in L-1A classification in order to open a new office in the United States and the petitioner now seeks to extend his status.

The director denied the petition on the grounds that the petitioner failed to establish that the beneficiary would be employed in the United States in a primarily managerial or executive capacity. The petitioner filed a timely appeal.

A review of the records of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) indicates that the beneficiary has adjusted status to that of a U.S. permanent resident as of August 31, 2010. While the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a lawful permanent resident and the issues in this proceeding are moot. Therefore, this appeal is dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot.
