DISCUSSION: The Director of the Salt Lake City, Utah Field Office denied the Petition to Classify Orphan as an Immediate Relative (Form I-600). The petitioner appealed the matter to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), and we sustained the appeal, approving the petitions.<sup>1</sup> We now, on our own motion, move to reopen the matter under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(5)(ii).

The U.S. Consulate, [REDACTED] India has returned the approved petitions to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for revocation because the beneficiaries are ineligible for adoption under Indian law and, therefore, ineligible to be classified as orphans under U.S. immigration law. Accordingly, we must withdraw our prior decision and remand the matter the Director of the National Benefits Center to revoke approval of the beneficiaries' petitions.<sup>2</sup>

ORDER: The AAO's prior decision is withdrawn and the matter remanded to the Director of the National Benefits Center for revocation of the approved petitions.

[REDACTED] As a petitioner pays one fee for multiple orphan petitions submitted on behalf of siblings, the petitioner paid only one corresponding fee for the Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B). This decision, therefore, applies to all three sibling orphan petitions listed on the cover page.

<sup>2</sup> The record reflects that the U.S. Consulate in [REDACTED] India has already notified the beneficiaries of their ineligibility to be classified as orphans under U.S. immigration law. We remand the matter to the Director of the National Benefits Center (NBC), not the Salt Lake City, Utah Field Office, because the NBC is the designated orphan processing location for U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.
