Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Director, Headquarters, Bonds, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on December 15, 2005, the obligor posted a $6,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated July 23, 2007, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender into the custody of ICE for an interview and case review at 10:00 a.m. within five days of August 10, 2007, at the nearest ICE, Detention and Removal Office. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On October 17, 2007, the director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, the obligor asserts he did not surrender the alien because he was informed by the alien's counsel that a request for an extension of the surrender date has been filed with ICE in Tampa, Florida. As evidence, the obligor submits a letter from the alien's counsel dated August 15, 2007, addressed to an immigration official at the Tampa Office. The letter indicated, in pertinent part:

This will confirm that [the alien] does not have to report to the immigration office as requested in the letter dated July 23, 2007, out of the Lees Summit, Missouri immigration office. According to your computer check, you have no record of any removal or bond proceedings in [the alien's] name, date of birth and "A" number.

The obligor is not relieved of its responsibility to deliver the bonded alien at the time and place specified in the director's demand notice simply because it is alleged that there is no record of removal or bond proceedings. The director may call the alien in for an interview or custodial determination at any time at any time prior to removal. Further, bond proceedings are separate and distinct from removal proceedings. Removal proceedings are between the United States government and an alien with a questionable right to remain in the United States. A delivery bond is a contract between ICE and the obligor, where in consideration for obtaining the alien's release from custody, the obligor agrees to produce the alien on demand until the obligation to do so terminates under grounds specified in the contract

Delivery bonds are violated if the obligor fails to cause the bonded alien to be produced or to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer or immigration judge upon each and every written request until removal proceedings are finally terminated, or until the alien is actually accepted by the immigration officer for detention or removal. Matter of Smith, 16 I&N Dec. 146 (Reg. Comm. 1977).

The regulations provide that an obligor shall be released from liability where there has been "substantial performance" of all conditions imposed by the terms of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(c)(3). A bond is breached when there has been a substantial violation of the stipulated conditions of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(e).

8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(a)(2) provides that personal service may be effected by any of the following:

- (i) Delivery of a copy personally;
- (ii) Delivery of a copy at a person's dwelling house or usual place of abode by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion;

(iii) Delivery of a copy at the office of an attorney or other person including a corporation, by leaving it with a person in charge;

(iv) Mailing a copy by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to a person at his last known address.

The evidence of record indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien dated July 23, 2007 was sent to the obligor at [REDACTED] via certified mail. This notice demanded that the obligor produce the bonded alien on or before August 15, 2007. The domestic return receipt indicates the obligor received notice to produce the bonded alien on August 1, 2007. Consequently, the record clearly establishes that the notice was properly served on the obligor in compliance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(a)(2)(iv).

It is clear from the language used in the bond agreement that the obligor shall cause the alien to be produced or the alien shall produce himself to an ICE officer upon each and every request of such officer until removal proceedings are either finally terminated or the alien is accepted by ICE for detention or removal.

It must be noted that delivery bonds are exacted to insure that aliens will be produced when and where required by ICE for hearings or removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for ICE to function in an orderly manner. The courts have long considered the confusion which would result if aliens could be surrendered at any time or place it suited the alien's or the surety's convenience. Matter of L-, 3 I&N Dec. 862 (C.O. 1950).

After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
