DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Seattle, Washington, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on March 23, 2011, the obligor posted a $5,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated November 18, 2013, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's presence for an interview before an officer of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 9:00 a.m. on January 13, 2014 at [REDACTED] WA [REDACTED]. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On January 15, 2014, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, the obligor acknowledges the receipt of the Form I-340, but asserts that the bonded alien's "file was closed in Mr. [REDACTED]'s office when he hired another attorney to represent him on his appeal to the BIA."

The circumstance described does not relieve the obligor of her responsibility to deliver the bonded alien at the time and place specified in the field office director's demand notice. A delivery bond is a contract between ICE and the obligor, where in consideration for obtaining the alien's release from custody, the obligor agrees to produce the alien on demand until the obligation to do so terminates under grounds specified in the contract. The delivery bond is not a contract between ICE and the obligor's attorney. See Matter of Insurance Company of North America, 17 I&N Dec. 251 (Act. Reg. Comm. 1978). ICE correctly notified the obligor on Form I-340 to deliver the alien as demanded.

Delivery bonds are violated if the obligor fails to cause the bonded alien to be produced or to produce himself/herself to an immigration officer or immigration judge upon each and every written request until removal proceedings are finally terminated, or until the alien is actually accepted by the immigration officer for detention or removal. Matter of Smith, 16 I&N Dec. 146 (Reg. Comm. 1977).

The regulations provide that an obligor shall be released from liability where there has been "substantial performance" of all conditions imposed by the terms of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(c)(3). A bond is breached when there has been a substantial violation of the stipulated conditions of the bond. 8 C.F.R. § 103.6(e).

8 C.F.R. § 103.8(a)(2) provides that personal service may be effected by any of the following:

- (i) Delivery of a copy personally;
- (ii) Delivery of a copy at a person's dwelling house or usual place of abode by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion;

- (iii) Delivery of a copy at the office of an attorney or other person including a corporation, by leaving it with a person in charge;
- (iv) Mailing a copy by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to a person at his last known address.
- (v) If so requested by a party, advising the party by electronic mail and posting the decision to the party's USCIS account.

The evidence of record indicates that the Notice to Deliver Alien dated November 18, 2013, was sent to the obligor via certified mail. This notice demanded that the obligor produce the bonded alien on January 13, 2014. The United States Postal Service track and confirmation receipt indicates the obligor received notice to produce the bonded alien on November 20, 2013. Consequently, the record clearly establishes that the notice was properly served on the obligor in compliance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(a)(2)(iv).

It is clear from the language used in the bond agreement that the obligor shall cause the alien to be produced or the alien shall produce himself to an ICE officer upon each and every request of such officer until removal proceedings are either finally terminated or the alien is accepted by ICE for detention or removal.

It must be noted that delivery bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will be produced when and where required by ICE for hearings or removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for ICE to function in an orderly manner. The courts have long considered the confusion which would result if aliens could be surrendered at any time or place it suited the alien's or the surety's convenience. Matter of L-, 3 I&N Dec. 862 (C.O. 1950).

After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
