IN RE: Obligor:
Bonded Ali

IMMIGRATION BOND: Bond Conditioned for Voluntary Departure under § 240B of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1229c

ON BEHALF OF OBLIGOR:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Boston, Massachusetts, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on August 16, 2001, the obligor posted a $1,500.00 bond conditioned for the voluntary departure of the above referenced alien. An order of the immigration judge (IJ) dated August 15, 2001, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before September 14, 2001. On September 27, 2002, the field office director concluded the bond had been breached.

On appeal, the obligor asserts that the bonded alien departed the United States to Mexico on December 15, 2001. The obligor provides a copy of a Form G-146, which the obligor claims the alien sent to her.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 1240.26(c)(3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be cancelled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the field office director.

Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) will accept a document signed by an embassy official, consular officer, or an immigration officer abroad, and bearing an appropriate seal or other indicia of reliability as proof that a voluntary departure or self-removal has occurred. The field office director retains the discretion to accept other documents of voluntary departure. The original of such documents may be delivered either by the surety or through diplomatic channels. Copies of such documents will be accepted only if received through diplomatic channels.

The Form G-146 cannot be accepted, as it was not received through official channels and was not certified to be a true copy of the original. No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in voluntary departure bond proceedings.

The alien was granted 30 days from the IJ's order of August 15, 2001 to leave the United States. The alien did not leave as required on or before September 14, 2001. The director's decision of September 27, 2002 declaring the bond breach is valid.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for ICE to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
