Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record indicates that on May 27, 2005, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for his voluntary departure. On May 26, 2005, an immigration judge (IJ) issued an order granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before July 25, 2005. The bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On October 10, 2006, the BIA dismissed the appeal, and granted the alien voluntary departure within 60 days from the date of the order. On November 9, 2006, the applicant filed a petition for review before the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (Third Circuit). On May 14, 2007, the field office director concluded the bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the bonded alien has a pending appeal before the Third Circuit. Counsel indicated at item 2 of the appeal that a brief and/or evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. To date, however, no brief and/or evidence has been presented by counsel.

An appeal to the federal court of appeals does not stay the execution of the removal order unless the court orders otherwise. Section 242(b)(3)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) 8 U.S.C. § 1252(b)(3)(B). There is no evidence of record to indicate that the Third Circuit has stayed the bonded alien's removal.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 1240.26(c)(3) provides that in order for the voluntary departure bond to be cancelled, the alien must provide proof of departure to the field office director.

No satisfactory evidence has been introduced into the record to establish the alien made a timely departure. The service of a notice to surrender or the presence of a certified mail receipt is not required in voluntary departure bond proceedings.

Voluntary departure bonds are exacted to ensure that aliens will depart when required in lieu of removal. Such bonds are necessary in order for Immigration and Customs Enforcement to function in an orderly manner. After a careful review of the record, it is concluded that the alien failed to depart by the stipulated time, the conditions of the bond have been substantially violated, and the collateral has been forfeited. The decision of the field office director will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
