John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the District Director, Denver, Colorado, and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for attempting to enter the United States by falsely claiming United States citizenship. The record indicates that the applicant is the husband of a United States citizen. The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(i), in order to reside in the United States with his spouse and children.

The District Director determined that the applicant is inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(ii), for making a false claim to United States citizenship, and that “[t]here is no waiver or discretion available for someone who has been found inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(c)(ii) of the Act.” The District Director denied the Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the District Director, dated December 20, 2006.

Section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that:

(C) Misrepresentation.-

(i) In general.-Any alien who, by fraud or willfully misrepresenting a material fact, seeks to procure (or has sought to procure or has procured) a visa, other documentation, or admission into the United States or other benefit provided under this Act is inadmissible.

(ii) Falsely claiming citizenship.-

(I) In general.- Any alien who falsely represents, or has falsely represented, himself or herself to be a citizen of the United States for any purpose or benefit under this Act (including section 274A) or any other Federal or State law is inadmissible.

(iii) Waiver authorized.- For provision authorizing waiver of clause (i), see subsection (i).

Section 212 of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that:

(i) (1) The Attorney General [now the Secretary of Homeland Security, “Secretary”] may, in the discretion of the [Secretary], waive the application of clause (i) of subsection (a)(6)(C) in the case of an immigrant who is the spouse, son, or daughter of a United States citizen or of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, if it is established to the satisfaction of the [Secretary] that the refusal of admission to the United States of such immigrant alien would result in extreme hardship to the citizen or lawfully resident spouse or parent of such an alien...

Aliens making false claims to United States citizenship on or after September 30, 1996 are ineligible to apply for a Form I-601 waiver. See Sections 212(a)(6)(C)(ii) and (iii) of the Act. As the applicant's false claim to United States citizenship occurred after September 30, 1996, the applicant is clearly inadmissible to the United States and not eligible for a waiver under section 212(a)(6)(C)(iii) of the Act.

On appeal, the applicant's wife states the applicant is a "dedicated family man" and their "family would be torn apart" if the applicant's appeal is not granted. Form I-290B, dated January 16, 2007. The record reflects that on February 2, 1998, at the Bridge of The Americas, in El Paso, Texas, the applicant claimed to be a United States citizen in an attempt to gain entry into the United States. During secondary inspection, the applicant admitted to his Mexican citizenship. See Record of Sworn Statement in Proceedings under Section 235(b)(1) of the Act, dated February 2, 1998.

The AAO finds that because the applicant is statutorily ineligible for relief, no purpose would be served in discussing whether the applicant has established extreme hardship to his United States citizen spouse or whether he merits the waiver as a matter of discretion.

In proceedings for an application for waiver of grounds of inadmissibility under section 212(i) of the Act, the burden of proving eligibility remains entirely with the applicant. See section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. Here, the applicant has not met that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
