DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the District Director, Baltimore, Maryland and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cameroon who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), for having committed a crime involving moral turpitude. The applicant is the spouse and father of U.S. citizens. He seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(h) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(h), in order to remain in the United States.

The Field Office Director concluded that the applicant had failed to establish that his inadmissibility would result in extreme hardship for a qualifying relative. He denied the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility, accordingly. Decision of the District Director, dated May 11, 2011.

The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, does not state the basis for the appeal, but indicates the applicant's counsel will file a brief within 30 days. Form I-290B, dated May 27, 2011. However, as of the above date, no brief is found in the record.

Pursuant to the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss that appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The appeal in the present case does not indicate the basis on which it is being filed and no other documentation has been submitted to satisfy the requirements of 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v). Therefore, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The burden of proof in this proceeding rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The applicant has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
