John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the District Director, Mexico City (Ciudad Juarez), Mexico. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for more than one year and seeking readmission within ten years of her last departure from the United States. The applicant is married to a U.S. citizen and has three U.S. citizen children. She seeks a waiver of inadmissibility in order to reside in the United States.

The district director found that the record failed to establish that the applicant's U.S. citizen spouse would suffer extreme hardship as a result of her continued inadmissibility. The application was denied accordingly. Decision of the District Director, dated June 26, 2006.

On appeal, counsel states that he is sending a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within thirty days. He does not state any reasons for the appeal. Form I-290B, undated.

The AAO notes that it has been over thirty days since the filing of the applicant's appeal and no documentation has been received. Thus, the current record is considered the complete record.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(v) states in pertinent part that:

- (v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The AAO finds that the applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the district director's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
