DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Field Office Director, Albany, New York. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of Uganda who was found to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(i), for willful misrepresentation of a material fact in order to procure an immigration benefit. The applicant is married to a U.S. citizen and seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(i), in order to continue residing in the United States.

The field office director found that the applicant failed to establish extreme hardship to a qualifying relative and denied the application accordingly. Decision of the Field Office Director, dated April 10, 2008.

Section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

- (i) Any alien who, by fraud or willfully misrepresenting a material fact, seeks to procure (or has sought to procure or has procured) a visa, other documentation, or admission into the United States or other benefit provided under this Act is inadmissible.

Section 212(i) of the Act provides:

- (1) The [Secretary] may, in the discretion of the [Secretary], waive the application of clause (i) of subsection (a)(6)(C) in the case of an alien who is the spouse, son or daughter of a United States citizen or of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, if it is established to the satisfaction of the [Secretary] that the refusal of admission to the United States of such immigrant alien would result in extreme hardship to the citizen or lawfully resident spouse or parent of such an alien.

In the present case, the record reflects that the applicant entered the United States on a student visa with full knowledge that she would not be attending school. The applicant is therefore inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act for having procured admission to the United States through fraud or misrepresentation. The applicant's qualifying relative is her United States Citizen husband.

By letter received by the AAO on March 1, 2010, the applicant's husband, [REDACTED] states that the applicant will be divorcing him. Based on this representation, the AAO finds that Mr. [REDACTED] her qualifying relative, will not suffer extreme hardship upon the denial of the applicant's waiver application. In addition, the AAO notes that the Petition for Alien Relative (Form I-130) will be automatically revoked upon the divorce between the petitioner and the beneficiary. 8 C.F.R. § 205.1(a)(3)(i)(D). Once the Form I-130 is revoked, there will no longer be an underlying petition to support the filing of the waiver application.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
