DISCUSSION: The waiver application was denied by the Field Office Director, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who attempted to enter the United States on October 26, 1998 by presenting a photo-substituted United States passport issued to [REDACTED]. She was found to be inadmissible to the United States under section 212(a)(6)(C)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(C)(ii), for falsely representing herself to be a citizen of the United States, and was removed from the United States. The applicant subsequently reentered the United States without inspection.

The applicant is the mother of a U.S. citizen and is the beneficiary of an approved Petition for Alien Relative. The applicant seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(i), in order to remain in the United States with her son.

The field office director concluded that the applicant was inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(C)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(C)(i)(II), and denied the Application for Waiver of Ground of Excludability (Form I-601) accordingly. Decision of the Field Office Director, dated June 8, 2009.

Section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

(i) Any alien who, by fraud or willfully misrepresenting a material fact, seeks to procure (or has sought to procure or has procured) a visa, other documentation, or admission into the United States or other benefit provided under this Act is inadmissible.

(ii) Falsely claiming citizenship. –

(I) In General –

Any alien who falsely represents, or has falsely represented, himself or herself to be a citizen of the United States for any purpose or benefit under this Act (including section 274A) or any other Federal or State law is inadmissible.

(iii) Waiver authorized. – For provision authorizing waiver of clause (i), see subsection (i).

The applicant attempted to enter the United States on October 26, 1998 by presenting a U.S passport in the name of [REDACTED] and falsely claiming to be a U.S. Citizen. She was found to be inadmissible under sections 212(a)(6)(C)(ii) and 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I) of the Act and was removed from the United States on the same day. See Form I-213, Record of Deportable/Inadmissible Alien and Form I-296, Departure Verification. The applicant admitted her true name was [REDACTED] and that she was a native and citizen of Mexico. See Form I-876A, Record of Sworn Statement in Proceedings under Section 235(b)(1) of the Act, dated October 26, 1998. There is no waiver available for this ground of inadmissibility.

Because the applicant is inadmissible under a ground for which no waiver is available, no purpose would be served in discussing whether the applicant has established eligibility for a waiver under section 212(i) of the Act for fraud or misrepresentation or whether she would merit the waiver as a matter of discretion.

In proceedings for an application for waiver of grounds of inadmissibility, the burden of establishing that the application merits approval rests with the applicant. See section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. In this case, the applicant has not met his burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
