DATE: OFFICE: SANTO DOMINGO, D.R. FILE:

IN RE: JUL 12 2012 Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility under Section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v)

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen in accordance with the instructions on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, Mexico City, Mexico, denied the waiver application. The applicant, through prior counsel, appealed the District Director's decision, and the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) dismissed the subsequent appeal. On August 26, 2010, current counsel filed a motion to reopen the AAO's decision in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. The motion will be dismissed.

The record reflects that the applicant is a native and citizen of Antigua and Barbuda who was found by the District Director to be inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(i)(II), for having been unlawfully present in the United States for one year or more, and seeking admission within 10 years of his last departure from the United States. The applicant is the beneficiary of an approved Petition for Alien Relative (Form I-130), filed by his United States citizen spouse. The applicant does not contest the finding of inadmissibility. Rather, he seeks a waiver of inadmissibility pursuant to section 212(a)(9)(B)(v) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(B)(v), in order to reside with his wife in the United States.

On motion, counsel asserts that the applicant's qualifying relative: has suffered substantial deterioration of her medical conditions, resulting in the determination by her employer and the U.S. Social Security Administration that she is "disabled"; requires the assistance of her daughter to maintain her mobility; and was born in Montserrat, and not Antigua and Barbuda, as mistakenly believed by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Upon review, the motion shall be dismissed for failing to meet applicable requirements.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii) lists the filing requirements for motions to reopen and motions to reconsider. Section 103.5(a)(1)(iii)(C) requires that motions be "[a]ccompanied by a statement about whether or not the validity of the unfavorable decision has been or is the subject of any judicial proceeding." In this matter, the motion does not contain the statement required by 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii)(C). Further, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4) states that a motion which does not meet applicable requirements must be dismissed. Therefore, because the instant motion did not meet the applicable filing requirement listed in 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(iii)(C), it must be dismissed for this reason.

Motions for the reopening or reconsideration of immigration proceedings are disfavored for the same reasons as petitions for rehearing and motions for a new trial on the basis of newly discovered evidence. See INS v. Doherty, 502 U.S. 314, 323 (1992)(citing INS v. Abudu, 485 U.S. 94 (1988)). A party seeking to reopen a proceeding bears a "heavy burden." INS v. Abudu, 485 U.S. at 110. With the current motion, the movant has not met that burden. The motion will be dismissed.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The applicant has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the motion will be dismissed, the proceedings will not be reopened or reconsidered, and the previous decisions of the District Director and the AAO will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
