IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Nebraska Service Center is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

On appeal, the applicant states that he never received any documents to fill out for adjustment of status.

The status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A(a)(1) of the Act may be terminated at any time if the alien fails to file for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent resident on Form I-698 within forty-three (43) months of the date he/she was granted status as a temporary resident. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u)(1)(iv).

The applicant was granted temporary resident status on March 21, 1989. The 43-month eligibility period for filing for adjustment expired on October 21, 1992. The applicant did not file the Application for Adjustment of Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident (Form I-698). The director therefore terminated the applicant's temporary resident status.

The applicant indicates that he never received any documents to file for adjustment to permanent residence. The Immigration and Naturalization Service and private voluntary organizations did widely publicize the requirement of applying for adjustment to permanent residence within the requisite period. The original eligibility period of 31 months was extended to 43 months to better enable applicants to file timely applications. The application for adjustment to permanent residence was readily available. The burden to file the adjustment application in a timely manner remains with the applicant. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(d).

The applicant's statement made on appeal has been considered. Nevertheless, there is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above. As the applicant has not overcome the grounds for termination of status, the appeal must be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
