Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center. It is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application for lack of prosecution because the applicant failed to appear for the required interview regarding his/her Application for Temporary Residence as a Special Agricultural Worker.

On appeal, the applicant stated that she left the United States to attend her ailing mother in Mexico and could not attend her interview.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d).

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 210.2(c)(2)(iv), each alien who filed his application in the United States, regardless of age, must appear at the appropriate Service legalization office and must be fingerprinted. Each applicant shall be interviewed by an immigration officer, except that the interview may be waived when it is impractical because of the health of the applicant.

The applicant was notified in writing that she was scheduled for an interview. By her own admission, the applicant received this notice. The applicant did not notify the Service of her inability to attend her interview and failed to appear. Accordingly, the director denied the application on January 31, 1991 as the applicant had failed to present herself for her required interview.

The applicant was provided with the opportunity to appear for her interview. She has failed to comply with Service requirements. Therefore, the applicant is ineligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
