If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant failed to apply for adjustment to permanent residence within the time permitted.

On appeal the applicant claimed, without specificity, to be eligible for permanent residence. He requested the opportunity to articulate the basis for his claim after receiving a copy of the record. Although a copy was sent to him, he failed to respond further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of status. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
