IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1160

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

Although the application for temporary residence under section 210(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act was denied, the applicant was adjusted to lawful permanent resident status in another proceeding on June 3, 2004. Therefore, the application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker is moot.

It is further noted that while the record contains a Form G-28, Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, signed by the attorney claiming to represent the applicant in matters related to her legalization filing, the form is not signed by the applicant. As the AAO cannot conclude that the applicant consented to attorney representation, a copy of this decision will be sent only to the applicant.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
