Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period. This decision was based on adverse information relating to the applicant's claim of employment for [REDACTED]

Whenever an application for special agricultural worker status is denied or the status of a lawful temporary resident is terminated, the alien shall be given written notice setting forth the specific reasons for the denial on Form I-692, Notice of Denial. Form I-692 shall also contain advice to the applicant that he or she may appeal the decision and that such appeal must be taken within 30 days following service of the notification of decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(i). An appeal received after the thirty (30) day period has tolled will not be accepted for processing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, shall be used to file the appeal and must be accompanied by the appropriate fee. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(ii). Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the Notice of Denial on June 16, 1992 and sent it to the applicant's address of record. The record shows that the notice was returned by the United States Postal Service marked as "addressee unknown." The record further shows that the applicant failed to inform the Immigration and Naturalization Service or the Service (now Citizenship and Immigration Services or CIS) of any change in his address of record until the receipt of a Form I-697A, Change of Address, dated October 20, 1992. Therefore, the applicant's failure to receive the notice was clearly of his own making. The appeal was not received until October 28, 1992, one hundred thirty-four days after the decision was issued. The appeal was untimely filed and, therefore, must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
