Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the Director, Philadelphia. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman Class Membership Worksheet on December 23, 2005. Upon review, the director determined that insufficient evidence had been presented to establish eligibility under section 245A of the Act. On July 6, 2006, the director issued a notice of intent to deny (NOID) stating that the applicant had failed to provide documentation establishing his eligibility for temporary resident status under section 245A of the Act. In response to the NOID, the applicant submitted a copy of his Form I-687 dated January 19, 1990, legalization questionnaire, interview notice for determination of subclass membership, LULAC class member declaration and supporting statements from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The director denied the application, finding that the applicant had not provided credible evidence to establish eligibility under section 245A of the Act.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he submitted copies of all the documents he had on file. The documents submitted on appeal are the same documents the applicant submitted in response to the NOID with the exception of a letter dated March 9, 2006 signed by [REDACTED] of St. Martin of Tours Parish. The letter states that the applicant is a member and regularly attends Sunday Mass and other church activities.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(d)(3)(v) provides requirements for attestations made on behalf of an applicant by churches, unions, or other organizations. Attestations must (1) identify applicant by name; (2) be signed by an official (whose title is shown); (3) show inclusive dates of membership; (4) state the address where applicant resided during membership period; (5) include the seal of the organization impressed on the letter or the letterhead of the organization, if the organization has letterhead stationery; (6) establish how the author knows the applicant; and (7) establish the origin of the information being attested to. The [REDACTED] statement does not comply with this regulation in that it does not show the inclusive dates of membership, the applicant's address during the membership period and the origin of the information. Thus, the statement will be given no weight.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant on appeal provided no new evidence or explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of his application

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence and has not addressed the grounds stated in the director's denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
