Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the Director, Cincinnati. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman Class Membership Worksheet. The director denied the application, finding that the applicant had not provided credible evidence to establish eligibility under section 245A of the Act.

On appeal, the applicant requests additional time to search for evidence. The applicant states that when such evidence is found, it will be sent as quickly as possible.

On the Form I-290B, the applicant indicated that a written brief would be submitted within 30 days. The record does not contain such written brief or statement. To date, this office has no record that any further evidence or brief was received with regard to this appeal. Accordingly, a decision will be rendered based on the evidence of record.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. On appeal, the applicant provided no new evidence or explanation to overcome the reasons for denial of her Form I-687 application.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. The evidence provided by the applicant that consists of a statement from [REDACTED] and copy of her class schedule showing her enrollment on September 27, 1999 fails to establish the applicant's illegal entry into the United States prior to January 1, 1982 and her continuous unlawful residence in the United States for the duration of the requisite period. The affidavits submitted do not contain sufficient information to support the applicant's claim. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence and has not addressed the grounds stated in the director's denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
