IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the director, California Service Center, is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant's temporary resident status under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. § 1255a, as amended, was terminated by the director on September 5, 2008 as a result of the applicant's unresolved criminal convictions. The applicant represents himself on appeal and requests that he be allowed to remain in the United States because he is "a good citizen of this country." The applicant does not specifically address the director's analysis of the evidence, nor does he identify any error in the final decision.

Federal regulatory provisions governing an appeal from a legalization decision by the district director state, in pertinent part, that an appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal or is patently frivolous will be summarily dismissed. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv).

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of temporary residence. On appeal, the applicant has not specifically addressed the basis for the termination. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
