DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, or Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the District Director, Newark, New Jersey, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal is rejected. This matter will be remanded for further action and consideration.

The district director concluded that the applicant had not established that he was eligible for class membership pursuant to the CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he is a class member and that he was not given an opportunity to amend his application to correctly state all of his absences from the United States during the requisite time period.

Paragraph 7, page 4 of the CSS Settlement Agreement and paragraph 7, page 7 of the Newman Settlement Agreement both state in pertinent part:

Before denying an application for class membership, the Defendants shall forward the applicant or his or her representative a notice of intended denial explaining the perceived deficiency in the applicant's Class Member Application and providing the applicant thirty (30) days to submit additional written evidence or information to remedy the perceived deficiency.

A review of the record reveals that the district director failed to issue a notice of intent to deny to the applicant explaining the perceived deficiency in the applicant's Class Member Application and providing the applicant 30 days to submit additional written evidence or information to remedy the perceived deficiency prior to denying the application.

Accordingly, the decision of the district director is withdrawn. The case will be remanded for reconsideration by the director. If the director finds that the alien is ineligible for class membership, the director must first issue a notice of intent to deny, which explains any perceived deficiency in the applicant's Class Member Application and provides the applicant 30 days to submit additional written evidence or information to remedy the perceived deficiency. Once the applicant has had an opportunity to respond to any such notice, if he has not overcome the director's finding then the director must issue a new decision regarding the applicant's eligibility for class membership to the applicant. Any new adverse decision and still pending appeal shall be forwarded to the Special Master as designated in paragraph 9, page 5 of the CSS Settlement Agreement and paragraph 9, pages 7 and 8 of the Newman Settlement Agreement for review and adjudication of the applicant's appeal as it relates to his eligibility for class membership.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected. This matter is remanded for further action and consideration pursuant to the above.
