DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period.

On appeal, the applicant requested a copy of his record of proceedings and a 30 day extension to submit additional evidence upon receipt of his record. The Legalization Appeals Unit (now the Administrative Appeals Office) remanded the appeal for the purpose of processing the applicant's request for a copy of his record of proceedings. The record reflects that on May 27, 2004, a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request was filed on behalf of the applicant. USCIS fulfilled this request on June 30, 2004, and released a copy of the applicant's record. However, as of the date of this decision, the applicant has not addressed the basis of denial nor has he furnished any additional evidence.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
