John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, or Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the director of the New York office, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman (LULAC) Class Membership Worksheet.<sup>1</sup> The director denied the application, finding that the applicant had not established by a preponderance of the evidence that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status for the duration of the requisite time period.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant has established his unlawful residence for the requisite time period. He states that the documents that the applicant submitted in support of his claim are verifiable and that the applicant has proven that he has continuously resided in unlawful status for the duration of the requisite period. No additional evidence was submitted on appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. §103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, counsel has not addressed the grounds stated for denial, nor has he presented additional evidence relevant to the grounds for denial or the stated reason for appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.

<sup>1</sup> The applicant also submitted a second Form I-687, receipt number MSC-06-049-12700, identical to the instant Form I-687 with the exception of a corrected date of birth. The evidence submitted with the second Form I-687 was identical to the evidence submitted with the instant Form I-687. The director mistakenly issued the Notice of Intent to Deny (NOID) in the instant Form I-687 under the receipt number for the second Form I-687. The second Form I-687 has been terminated as a duplicate filing. The director's error is harmless because the issued NOID, to which the applicant responded, referenced an application and supporting evidence that were identical in all material respects.
