ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the director in Los Angeles, California. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant, a native of Mexico who claims to have lived in the United States since 1975, submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, CSS/Newman (LULAC) Class Membership Worksheet on June 14, 2005. The director denied the application, finding that the applicant had not established by a preponderance of the evidence that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status for the duration of the requisite periods.

On appeal, the applicant reasserts his claim that he entered the United States in 1975, and that he has submitted credible documentation to establish that he meets the continuous residence requirement for the duration of the requisite period. The applicant does not specifically allege any legal or factual error in the director's decision, and does not address the evidentiary deficiencies and contradictions cited in the Notice of Intent to Deny (NOID) and the Notice of Decision. The applicant has not submitted new evidence bearing on the grounds for denial discussed in the decision. As of the date of this decision, no additional evidence has been submitted, and the record will be deemed complete.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not addressed the grounds stated for denial, and has not cited any error(s) in the decision nor has he presented additional evidence relevant to the grounds for denial or the stated reason for appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

The AAO notes that the applicant was arrested on July 15, 2001, by the Sheriff's Office, Norwalk, California, and charged with one count of DUI-Diving Under the Influence of Alcohol/Drugs. The applicant was subsequently convicted on this crime and sentenced to probation. The actual court records are not currently contained in the record and the applicant's criminal history will not be used as a basis for dismissing his appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
