Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Houston, is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to file the application for adjustment of status from temporary to permanent residence within the 43-month application period.

The applicant was granted temporary resident status on July 7, 1993 under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a. The applicant was required to file an application to adjust status from temporary to permanent resident within forty-three (43) months of receiving her temporary resident status. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(b)(1). Pursuant to section 245A(b)(2)(C) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a(b)(2)(C), a failure to file an application for adjustment to permanent residence within this statutory filing period will result in the termination of the applicant's temporary residence. The applicant failed to file an application to adjust status from temporary to permanent resident. The 43-month eligibility period for filing for adjustment expired on February 6, 1997.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed solely on the basis of a denial for failure to file the application for adjustment of status under section 210 or 245A in a timely manner, will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
