Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Houston, Texas is before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status noting that the applicant's evidence of continuous residency for the relevant period contained several material inconsistencies. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(b)(1), "the temporary resident status may be terminated upon the occurrence of any of the following: (i) it is determined that the alien was ineligible for temporary residence under section 245A of this Act;"

The director noted that several material inconsistencies relating to the applicant's address during the relevant period cast doubt on the reliability of the evidence submitted. Noting the paucity of credible evidence in the record which would establish the applicant's eligibility for temporary residence, the director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status on April 17, 2009.

On appeal, the applicant indicates that the discrepancies regarding the dates of her residency were honest mistakes due to faulty memory. She indicates that she has previously submitted all of the evidence of her residence. She provides no additional information or evidence in support of her application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of the applicant's temporary residence. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
