DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) Settlement Agreements was denied by the director of the Los Angeles office. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant submitted a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), and a Form I-687 Supplement, NWIRP Class Membership Worksheet.

The director determined, under the terms of the NWIRP Settlement Agreements, that the applicant had not established by a preponderance of the evidence that he entered the United States before January 1, 1982 and continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status for the duration of the requisite time period. Therefore, the director denied the application, finding that the applicant was not eligible to adjust to temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the NWIRP Settlement Agreements.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that the evidence which he previously submitted establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that he continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status for the duration of the requisite time period. The witness statements and documents which the applicant submits on appeal have previously been submitted into the record.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. §103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not addressed the grounds stated for denial, nor has he presented any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
