IN RE: Applicant:

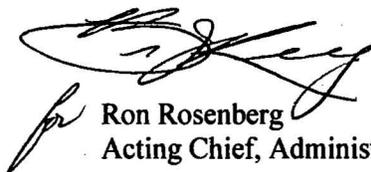

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained or remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

Ron Rosenberg
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director of the California Service Center initially denied the application for temporary resident status. The applicant appealed the decision. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) remanded the appeal. The director denied the application. The AAO issued a Notice of Certification to the applicant, providing the applicant 30 days to respond. The applicant failed to submit a brief or other written statement and therefore, the AAO will adjudicate the application based on the record. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application, finding the applicant was inadmissible. The applicant filed a Form I-690 Application for Waiver of Grounds of Excludability, which was denied.

The applicant failed to submit any evidence in response to the Notice of Certification, which addresses the deficiencies noted in the Notice of Denial.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has she addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
