Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to provide the final court dispositions of all arrests since his arrival in the United States.

An adverse decision on an application for adjustment to permanent resident status may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal shall be submitted to the Service Center with the required fee within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of denial. An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The thirty-day period for submitting an appeal begins three days after the notice of denial is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(j).

The director issued the notice of decision on October 12, 2005, and mailed it to the applicant's address of record. The applicant's appeal from the denial decision was not received at the Texas Service Center until November 16, 2005, 35 days after the issuance of the denial decision. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
