INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Houston, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director determined that the applicant had been convicted of three or more misdemeanors and therefore, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245a.18(a), was inadmissible to the United States. Accordingly, the director denied the application for adjustment of status as a permanent resident.

On appeal, the applicant states that two of her misdemeanor convictions had been expunged and that the court did not find evidence of any of the other five convictions identified by the director. The applicant indicated on the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Unit, that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted within 30 days of filing the appeal. As of the date of this decision, however, more than two years after the appeal was filed, no further documentation has been received by the AAO. This issue is moot, however, as the appeal was untimely filed.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins three days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director sent his decision of December 7, 2004 to the applicant and counsel at their addresses of record in the United States. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal 37 days later on January 13, 2005. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
