INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. The file has been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, San Francisco, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because the applicant was found to have abandoned the application. Specifically, the applicant failed to timely comply with a request for evidence.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(15), a denial due to abandonment may not be appealed. Since the denial in this case was based on the abandonment of the application, it may not be appealed. Therefore, the appeal will be rejected.

It is noted that, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 210.2(g), the director may sua sponte reopen any adverse decision. Additionally, the director may certify any such decision to the AAO. See 8 C.F.R. § 210.2(h).

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
