Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The District Director, Houston, denied the application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant had failed to establish that she entered the United States prior to January 1, 1982.

On part 3 of the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, filed on October 1, 2007, counsel for the applicant stated the following was the basis for the applicant's appeal:

We believe the information you have is sufficient to support an approval of this I-485.

Counsel also indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence was attached, but simply attached a copy of the director's Notice of Denial. Counsel did not allege any legal or factual error in the director's decision and did not submit additional documents. As of the date of this decision, no additional evidence has been submitted, and the record will be deemed complete.

Any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal will be summarily dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence and has not addressed the basis for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
