Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Los Angeles, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director concluded that the applicant failed to demonstrate that he resided continuously in the United States in an unlawful status throughout the statutory period. Therefore, she denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant asserted that the evidence in the record including that submitted on appeal does establish that he resided continuously in the United States in an unlawful status during the statutory period.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director issued the January 29, 2007 notice of decision to the applicant at his address of record. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Office, 64 days later on April 3, 2007. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
