INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been forwarded to the Citizenship and Immigration Services National Records Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, the record of proceedings was returned to the office that originally issued a decision in your case, and you will be contacted.

John F. Grissom, Acting Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Jacksonville, Florida and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director concluded that the applicant failed to demonstrate that she resided continuously in the United States in an unlawful status throughout the statutory period. Therefore, the director denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant asserted that the evidence in the record does establish that she resided continuously in the United States in an unlawful status during the statutory period.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director issued the January 14, 2005 notice of decision to the applicant at her address of record. U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) received the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Office, 35 days later on Friday, February 18, 2005. Therefore, the appeal was not filed timely.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
