IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. A subsequent late appeal was reopened by the director on motion and the application was again denied. The matter is now before the AAO on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application after determining that the applicant had failed to submit any evidence of residence since December 30, 1998, to establish continuous physical presence since January 5, 1999 and to submit photo identification. The director also found the applicant failed to establish she was eligible for late registration.

On appeal, the applicant states she was unaware of the deadline for the TPS and that she will send proof that she has continuously resided in the United States since January 5, 1999. The applicant checked the block: "I need 30 days to submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAU." To date, however, no additional statement or evidence has been provided. Therefore, the record is complete.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal shall be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
