IN RE:

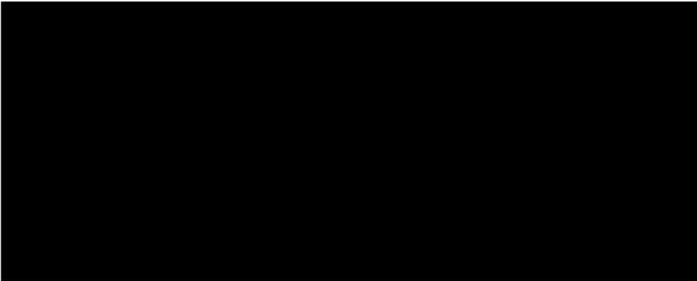

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the California Service Center. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert P. Wiemann".

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The initial application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. A subsequent application for re-registration was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is currently before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The initial application will be reopened, sua sponte, by the Chief, AAO, and the case will be remanded for further consideration and action.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed an initial application for TPS under CIS receipt number SRC 02 127 53898 which was denied by the director on March 26, 2003, after determining that the applicant had abandoned her application by failing to respond to a request to appear for fingerprinting that was sent to her on May 3, 2002.

The applicant filed the current application, on April 28, 2005, and indicated that she was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application because the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible to apply for re-registration for TPS.

The record does not reflect that a request for fingerprints was sent to the applicant on May 3, 2002.

As stated above, the director denied the initial application after determining that the applicant had abandoned her application by failing to respond to a request to appear for fingerprinting dated May 3, 2002. However, the record does not reflect that a request was sent to her on that date.

Although not addressed by the director, the applicant has provided insufficient evidence to establish that she is a national or citizen of El Salvador. The record does not contain any photo identification such as a passport or national identity document to establish her nationality. 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(a) and § 244.9(a)(1). Additionally, to date, the applicant has provided insufficient evidence to establish her continuous residence and continuous physical presence during the required time periods. 8 C.F.R. § 244.2 (b) and (c).

The director's denial of the initial application will be withdrawn; the application will be remanded for a new decision. The director's denial of the application for re-registration or renewal is dependent upon the adjudication of the initial application. Since the initial application is being remanded, the current decision will also be remanded to the director for further review pursuant to the new decision on the initial application. The director may request any evidence deemed necessary to assist with the determination of the applicant's eligibility for TPS.

As always in these proceedings the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The initial application is reopened, the director's decision is withdrawn and the application is remanded. The re-registration application is remanded for further action consistent with the director's new decision on the initial application.
