IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center(VSC), and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The case will be remanded.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed her initial Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on March 5, 2004, after the initial registration period for El Salvadorans had ended. On March 23, 2004, the applicant was requested to submit evidence establishing her qualifying continuous residence in the United States as of February 13, 2001, and continuous physical presence in the United States since March 9, 2001. The applicant was also requested to submit evidence to establish her eligibility for late registration. The record does not contain a response from the applicant; therefore, the director denied the application on April 16, 2004.

While the director's decision states: "the grounds for denial have not been overcome," the specific reasons for the denial are not indicated. Under 8 C.F.R. § 103.3, "the officer shall explain in writing the specific reasons for denial."

The case is remanded for the issuance of a new decision that sets forth the specific reasons for the denial.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The case is remanded to the director for entry of a new decision.
