IN RE:

Applicant:

[REDACTED]

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

[REDACTED]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wieman, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The re-registration application was denied by the Director, California Service Center. It is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application on July 26, 2005, on the ground that since the initial application for TPS [EAC 04 211 51976] had been denied, the applicant was ineligible to re-register for TPS.

The applicant filed a timely appeal (Form I-290B) on August 26, 2005, indicating that a brief and/or evidence would be submitted within 30 days. No such brief or evidence was submitted within 30 days, however, or any time thereafter.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. See section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
