Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed as moot.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the initial application on January 19, 2003 because the applicant failed to establish her nationality and identity. The applicant appealed the decision on February 5, 2003. The director reopened the case on April 9, 2003 after determining that the applicant had provided the requested evidence. The director subsequently denied this application again on June 19, 2003, because she found that the applicant had failed to submit requested court documentation relating to her criminal record.

On appeal, the applicant states that she has only been arrested once for a Class B misdemeanor. The applicant also provides the final court disposition for the charge.

CIS records indicate the applicant's status was subsequently adjusted to permanent resident on April 9, 2007.

ORDER: The application is summarily dismissed.
