DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant had been convicted of three misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant does not address the basis for the denial of the application or provide any evidence to overcome the director's findings. The applicant asserts, "I would like to work on resolving these issues and having them cleared up as quickly as possible." The applicant indicates at Part 2 on the appeal form that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days.¹ However, more than 90 days later, no additional correspondence has been presented by the applicant.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to overcome the director's finding and has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the regulations mandate the summary dismissal of the appeal.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

While not the basis for the dismissal of the appeal, it is noted that the record reflects that a removal hearing was held on August 13, 2008, and the alien was ordered removed in absentia. On March 16, 2010, a Form I-205, Warrant of Removal/Deportation, was issued.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
