DECLARATION OF INTENDING CITIZEN

READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY

General Information

The filing of this Declaration of Intending Citizen with the Immigration and Naturalization Service is required in order for an alien, who falls within one of the four groups listed below, to assert a claim of discrimination on the basis of citizenship status under section 274B of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Only the following groups of alien may assert such discrimination claims:

- (a) an alien who has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence; or
- (b) an alien who has been granted the status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A (a) (1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act; or
- (c) an alien who has been admitted as a refugee under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act; or
- (d) an alien who has been granted asylum under section 208 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

An alien who falls within one of the four groups listed in the column to the left may, but is not required to, complete this Declaration of Intending Citizen. The filing of this form with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, however, is one of the prerequisites established by section 274B of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) for an alien in one of the groups listed to the left to assert a claim of discrimination on the basis of citizenship status under that section. Section 274B of the Act further provides that, in order for an alien who is eligible for naturalization to be able to file a citizenship discrimination claim under this Act, he or she must apply for naturalization within six months of the date the alien first becomes eligible to apply. After applying for naturalization on a timely basis, the alien must also have been naturalized within two years after the date of application, in order to be able to file a citizenship discrimination claim under this Act, unless the alien can establish that he or she is actively pursuing naturalization. The Act also states that the time consumed in the Service's processing the application for naturalization shall not be counted toward the two-year period.

This Declaration of Intending Citizen is not required as a basis for filing a petition for naturalization. Nor shall this Declaration be regarded as conferring or having conferred upon the person who filed it United States citizenship or nationality or the right to United States citizenship or nationality; nor shall this Declaration be regarded as evidence of such person's lawful admission for permanent residence.

Instructions for the Alien

Information provided by the alien on the Declaration of Intending Citizen in response to paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) should be typed or printed legibly in ink. Upon completing the form, the alien should send the original and the attached duplicate copy to the office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service having jurisdiction over the alien's place of residence. DECLARATION OF INTENDING CITIZEN

General Information

The filing of this Declaration of Intending Citizen with the Immigration and Naturalization Service is required in order for an alien, who falls within one of the four groups listed below, to assert a claim of discrimination on the basis of citizenship status under section 274B of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Only the following groups of aliens may assert such discrimination claims:

- (a) an alien who has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence: or
- (b) an alien who has been granted the status of an alien lawfully admitted for temporary residence under section 245A (a) (1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act: or
- (c) an alien who has been admitted as a refugee under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act: or
- (d) an alien who has been granted asylum under section 208 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

An alien who falls within one of the four groups listed in the column to the left may, but is not required to, complete this Declaration of Intending Citizen. The filing of this form with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, however, is one of the prerequisites established by section 274B of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) for an alien in one of the groups listed to the left to assert a claim of discrimination on the basis of citizenship status under that section. Section 274B of the Act further provides that, in order for an alien who is eligible for naturalization to be able to file a citizenship discrimination claim under this Act, he or she must apply for naturalization within six months of the date the alien first becomes eligible to apply. After applying for naturalization on a timely basis, the alien must also have been naturalized within two years after the date of application, in order to be able to file a citizenship discrimination claim under this Act, unless the alien can establish that he or she is actively pursuing naturalization. The Act also states that the time consumed in the Service's processing the application for naturalization shall not be counted toward the two-year period.

This Declaration of Intending Citizen is not required as a basis for filing a petition for naturalization. Nor shall this Declaration be regarded as conferring or having conferred upon the person who filed it United States citizenship or nationality or the right to United States citizenship or nationality; nor shall this Declaration be regarded as evidence of such person's lawful admission for permanent residence.
