E-Verify Tip

A program administrator created cases for new hires under the wrong employer account. How can we correct this error? If the case is still open, and the employee still works for the employer, the employer should close the case as 'The case is invalid because data entered is incorrect.' The employer should then create a new case for the employee under the correct E-Verify account. For more visit: E-Verify: Creating and Managing Cases.

Form I-9 Tip

Forms I-9 should never be mailed to USCIS or ICE. Employers must keep these forms on file. For more on storage and retaining, look at I-9 Central Storing Form I-9.
