

HONORABLE RICHARD A. JONES

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

A.B.T., et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

U.S. CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C11-2108 RAJ

ORDER APPROVING CLASS
ACTION SETTLEMENT

As stated in an accompanying order, the court has given final approval to the settlement agreement reflected in the parties' Revised Settlement Agreement ("Agreement"). The court issues this order solely to formalize its final approval of the settlement, and to help ensure execution of the settlement. The court has adopted the language of this order largely from the parties' proposed order approving class action settlement.

The court finds as follows:

1. This court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the litigation and over all parties to the Agreement, including all members of the Settlement Class.

1           2.     For purposes of this order, the court adopts the definitions set forth in the 2 Agreement, except as specifically noted in this order.

3           3.     On April 17, 2013, the court certified the following class and subclasses
4 (Dkt. # 54):

5           Notice and Review Class: All noncitizens in the United States who meet all 6 of the following criteria: (1) have filed or will file or lodge with Defendants 7 a complete asylum application; (2) whose asylum applications have neither 8 been approved nor subjected to a denial for which no rights of review or 9 appeal remain; (3) whose applications for employment authorization have 10 been or will be denied; (4) whose eligibility for employment authorization based on a pending asylum application will be determined in a manner that is alleged to provide insufficient notice and/or opportunity for review; and
(5) who fall in one or more of the following Subclasses:

11           Hearing Subclass: Individuals who meet all of the following criteria: (1) 12 who have been or will be issued a Form I-862, Notice to Appear in 13 removal proceedings, or Form I-863, Notice of Referral to an 14 immigration judge; (2) who have filed or lodged, or sought to lodge, or 15 who will lodge or seek to lodge a complete defensive asylum 16 application with the immigration court prior to a hearing before an 17 immigration judge; and (3) whose eligibility for employment authorization has been or will be calculated from the date the asylum application was or will be filed at a hearing before an immigration judge.

18           Prolonged Tolling Subclass: Asylum applicants who meet all of the 19 following criteria: (1) non-detained asylum applicants whose time 20 creditable toward employment authorization is or will be stopped due to 21 delay attributed to them by Defendants; (2) who have allegedly resolved 22 the issue causing the delay or will allegedly resolve the issue causing 23 the delay prior to the next scheduled hearing before an immigration judge; (3) but whose time creditable toward employment authorization remains or will remain stopped until the next hearing date.

24           Missed Asylum Interview Subclass: Asylum applicants who meet both 25 of the following criteria: (1) who have failed or will fail to appear for an 26 asylum interview with USCIS; and (2) who have not or will not accrue 27 time creditable toward eligibility for employment authorization following the date of the missed asylum interview on account of missing that asylum interview.

1        Remand Subclass: Asylum applicants who meet both of the following 2        criteria: (1) whose asylum applications were or will be denied by the 3        immigration court before they have been pending at least 180 days 4        exclusive of applicant caused delays; and (2) who subsequent to an 5        appeal in which either the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) or a 6        federal court of appeals remands their case for further adjudication of 7        their asylum claim by an immigration judge, have not or will not accrue
8        additional time creditable toward eligibility for employment 9        authorization.

10        4.        The Notice to the Class given pursuant to the court's Preliminary Approval 11        Order, Dkt. # 61, and Order Approving Notice on Attorneys' Fees and Modification of 12        the Agreement, Dkt. # 70, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances 13        to all potential members of the Class, and fully complied with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1).
14        The court finds that such notice was reasonable, that it constitutes adequate and sufficient 15        notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, and that it meets the requirements of Due 16        Process. Class members were given a full and fair opportunity to address the merits of 17        class counsel's representation and the adequacy of the terms of the Agreement.

18        5.        The court has reviewed the request for clarification and the objection to the 19        Agreement submitted to the court. The court agrees that the revision to the Agreement 20        addresses the request for clarification. The court has heard, considered, and overruled the 21        objection that has been voiced to the Agreement.

22        6.        The settlement set forth in the Agreement, which is incorporated herein by 23        reference, is now hereby approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate to all parties and 24        Class members, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e).

25        7.        In reaching its conclusion that the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and 26        adequate, the court has considered, among other things, the following factors: (a) the 27        strength of the Plaintiffs' case; (b) the risk, expense, and complexity and likely duration
28        of further litigation; (c) the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (d) 29        the policy changes implemented as part of the Agreement and amount offered in

1 settlement; (e) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (f) the 2 experience and views of counsel; (g) the presence of government participants; and (h) the 3 reaction of Class members to the proposed settlement.

4 8. The court reiterates its prior finding, Dkt. # 54, that the Settlement Class 5 satisfies all requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and 23(b)(2).

6 9. The court reaffirms its appointment of class counsel, Dkt. # 54: Matt
7 Adams and Christopher Strawn, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP); Melissa 8 Crow, Mary Kenney, and Emily Creighton, American Immigration Council (AIC);
9 Robert H. Gibbs and Robert Pauw, Gibbs Houston Pauw; and Iris Gomez, Massachusetts
10 Law Reform Institute (MLRI). The court reiterates its finding that, as required by Fed. R.
11 Civ. P. 23(g), class counsel has fairly, adequately, and competently represented the 12 interests of the Class. The court hereby grants the parties' request that Defendants pay 13 class counsel attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $425,000, to be distributed in 14 accordance with the Agreement.

15 10. Because the lapse in appropriations and the resulting Government 16 shutdown has caused Defendants to require additional time to complete the necessary 17 tasks to implement various provisions of the proposed settlement agreement, and because 18 the parties have agreed that a brief extension neither frustrates the purpose of the 19 agreement, nor is unfair to Class members, the court will extend all deadlines which 20 otherwise would have occurred on November 8, 2013 (i.e., six (6) months after the date 21 the court granted preliminary approval), until December 3, 2013.

22 11. The court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for purposes of 23 supervising the implementation, enforcement, construction, and interpretation of the 24 Agreement, and specifically as provided in Part II.11 in the Agreement (Dispute 25 Resolution Mechanism).

1 Dated this 4th day of November, 2013.
