Academic Community Engagement

Monday, August 12, 2013

8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. (Pacific)

USCIS California Service Center

24000 Avila Road

Laguna Niguel, CA 92677

The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) California Service Center (CSC) invites interested individuals, including members of the academic community, to participate in an all-day stakeholder engagement on Monday, August 12, 2013 from 8:30 am to 4:00 p.m. (Pacific).

This engagement will provide an opportunity for stakeholders to meet with USCIS to discuss student and academic-related immigration issues. Representatives from NAFSA: Association of International Educators, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Student and Exchange Visitor Program (ICE SEVP), and various designated school officials (DSOs) will be present to share information and answer questions. Topics for discussion include:

- I-129, Petition for Nonimmigrant Worker
- I-765, Application for Employment Authorization
- I-539, Application to Change or Extend Nonimmigrant Status
- Immigration trends in higher education

Following the engagement, USCIS will offer tours of the California Service Center to interested participants.
