Immigrant Integration: New Perspectives from the OECD and the United States

Friday, Aug. 28, 2015
1:30 – 3:30 p.m. (Eastern)
Washington, D.C.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) invite you to attend an event on immigrant integration on Friday, Aug. 28, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. (Eastern).

USCIS is pleased to host Jean-Christophe Dumont, Head of International Migration Division Directorate for Employment, Labor and Social Affairs, who will deliver a keynote address on the OECD's new report "Indicators of Immigrant Integration 2015: Settling In."

Following the presentation, a panel discussion will be held to discuss U.S. integration policy, promising programs, and research needs.

To Join the Event:

Please respond no later than Aug. 24 by emailing the Public Engagement Division at Public.Engagement@uscis.dhs.gov. Please write "Immigrant Integration RSVP" in the subject line and include your full name and the name of any organization you represent in the body of the message.

Participation in this meeting is in-person only. You must RSVP in order to attend. This event will have limited seating and entry to the event requires pre-registration.

Once we process your registration, you will receive a confirmation email with additional details. On the day of the event, please bring government-issued photo identification and plan to arrive at least 15 minutes early in order to pass through security.

Note to Media: This event is not for press purposes. Please contact the USCIS Press Office at (202) 272-1200 for any media inquiries.

We look forward to seeing you at this event!
